(b) the source of such receipts;

(c) the amount of money spent annually towards the salary and other allowances of members of the Public Service Commission;

(d) the total number of applications for registration received each year from 1951-52 up-to-date (classwar figures may kindly be given);

(e) the total number of applications registered each year from 1951-52 up-to-date (classwar figures may kindly be given);

(f) the total number of vacancies in Government service for which applications were invited in the period 1951-52 up-to-date;

(g) how many of these vacancies were brought under class "A";

(h) what are the communities included in class "A";

(i) the term of the present Commission?

A.—Sri Kadidal MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue and Public Works).—

		Rs.	a.
(a) 1951-52	...	20,432	0
1952-53	...	14,390	10
1953-54	...	38,334	0
1954-55	...	14,906	0

(up to 1st February 1955).

(b) Fees from candidates for applications, petitions, appeals, etc.

		Rs.	a.
(c) 1951-52	...	41,097	2
1952-53	...	49,436	4
1953-54	...	50,656	5
1954-55	...	48,629	8

(up to 31st January 1955).

(d) and (e) The number of applications received in response to advertisement of several kinds and classes of appointments are noted below. Classwise figures are not available.

		Rs.
1951-52	...	24,450
1952-53	...	15,184
1953-54	...	34,412
1954-55	...	12,285

(up to 31 January 1955).

		Rs.
(f) 1951-52	...	1,427
1952-53	...	890
1953-54	...	1,080
1954-55	...	Statistics are compiled after the close of the year and as such information is not available.

(g) Separate statistics are not compiled annually for classes "A" and "B" and as such information is not available.

(h) "A" class vacancies are open to all communities.

(i) Six years from the date of the appointment of the Commission, i.e., 18th May 1951.

Mysoreans in Central Industries.

Q.—79. Sri B. MADHAVACHAR (Bhadravati).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

whether it has come to their notice that Mysorean candidates are not getting adequate representation in appointments made by the several industries started by Government of India round about Bangalore and in the Southern Railways?

A.—Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA (Minister for Home and Industries).—

Such representations have been received in respect of Government of India Industrial Concerns like Hindustan Aircraft, Ltd., and Indian Telephone Industries, Ltd.

Muzrai Temples.

Q.—161. Sri B. RACHIAH (Yelandur—Scheduled Castes).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) the number and names of Muzrai temples in the State (talukwar figures may be given);

(b) the number of temples into which Harijans have been allowed actually;

(c) the number of cases where Harijans are nominated to work on the Committee of Dharmadarsis;

(d) the number of cases in which Harijans are taken to temples by the members of the committee constituted for the eradication of untouchability;